

30 Top Indoor Water Parks Across the U.S. 2022

Regardless of weather, these parks guarantee day and night fun.

By Kyle McCarthy and Holly Johnson Jan. 27, 2022

Cool off year-round at one of these exhilarating water parks.

The concept of "taking the waters" dates to the Romans, who favored curative mineral springs for relaxation and health. Today, water holidays can range from water parks with thrilling plunge, swirl and slide rides for all ages to wellness spas that provide a therapeutic break – or a combination of both. For a guaranteed escape that's bound to be a lot of fun, dive into one of these 30 can't-miss indoor water parks. (Note: Some water parks may require COVID-19 testing or vaccination proof and capacity restrictions may be in place due to the coronavirus pandemic. Check directly with the indoor water park before your trip.)

CREDIT Camelback Lodge & Aquatopia Indoor Waterpark: Tannersville, Pennsylvania

Camelback Resort in The Poconos was already popular with families visiting its ski trails and outdoor water park before it added a 453-suite lodge and indoor water park in 2015. Attraction options range from the Venus Slydetrap, a curved raft ride, to the Bombora FlowRider surf simulator to The Great Ka-Na-Gawa Wavepool. In total, guests will find seven different pools and 13 waterslides to choose from, along with other attractions.